

thanks giving

you're just like breeze you're just like mirage during night, you bring good time so bright you're just like sweets you're just like snow

magic of the twilight magic of the moonlight magic of the starlight you take me to the new world lipstick draws a butterfly white chair is gonna leave my house raindrops beat a nightmare there will be I in your sight so, it needs love, laughing everyday,

pray for much joy,
and you as my precious

for life
